

Hunmanby Hall Old Girls' Association

Privacy Policy

All personal data will be controlled by the Website Editor/Membership Secretary and will only be used for the operation of HHOGA affairs. The Website Editor/Membership Secretary looks after the data base which contains basic data on those who have supplied their information. This is held on PCs by the Chairman, Secretary and Website Editor/Membership Secretary to facilitate contact with members and cannot be accessed by others. The Website Editor/Membership Secretary provides Branch Secretaries with details of members within their areas which is either stored on PCs or manually to inform members of local branch meetings.

Data is only used to inform members of forthcoming HHOGA events and for the Secretary to contact members if necessary.

There are no circumstances in which information about a member would be revealed to any third party unless the member had specifically authorised the Officers to do so.

The data base consists of:

forenames, surnames, maiden names, addresses, telephone and mobile numbers and e-mail addresses if applicable

If at any time you wish to withdraw consent from having your information on the HHOGA data base, please let the Website Editor/Membership Secretary, Jenny Richards, know via the links under the Contacts Menu on the Home Page. However, if you withdraw your consent the Association will be unable to hold your details so it will not be possible to contact you in the future.

We should be extremely grateful if Old Girls could inform Jenny if their details change.

If you have any questions on the Association's use of your data, please do not hesitate to contact Jenny Richards as outlined above.
